A Guide to the Holy Door and the Jubilee Indulgence

On Sunday, December 13, Pope Francis blessed and opened the Holy Door at the Lateran Basilica in Rome. Following the directives of Bishop Libasci, we blessed and opened the Holy Door on the same day. Though our Holy Door is far away from the special doors in the four Roman basilicas, it offers the same spiritual benefits available in Rome. The principal benefit is called a plenary indulgence. The Manual of Indulgences (1999) provides this definition: "An indulgence is a remission before God of the temporal punishment for sins, whose guilt is forgiven." A "plenary" indulgence removes all punishment.

An indulgence is not a magical act. Rather, it flows from the accumulated "spiritual goods" of the Blessed Mother and the entire group of saints who have entered into Heavenly Glory. Because all of these faithful people are interlinked with one another, with the living, and with the dead who have not yet entered Heaven, the "spiritual goods" can be shared across the entire communion of saints. This includes us and our beloved dead. As such, the living may acquire plenary indulgences and apply them to the dead.

On September 1, 2015, Pope Francis published a list of requirements that need to be fulfilled to obtain the plenary indulgence linked to the Holy Door. Here they are:

1. A person must intend to receive the plenary indulgence.
2. A person must be baptized and in the state of grace, which means free of mortal sin.
3. A person must make a pilgrimage to one of the Holy Doors. Each Holy Door is equivalent to every other one. For example, the one in St. Peter's in Rome has no advantage over the one in St. Patrick's.
4. The visit to the Holy Door should coincide with Confession and the reverent reception of Holy Communion, which should include a brief reflection on God's Mercy. Ideally, these acts should happen together. If this is not possible, they may be separated by a reasonable amount of time.
5. A person must make a profession of faith. The sincere and devout recitation of the Apostle's Creed, Nicene Creed, or any other prayer that includes the basic dogmas of the Church.
6. A person must pray for the intentions of Pope Francis.

In addition to these devotional practices, the Holy Father stressed the importance of the "corporal works of mercy," notably almsgiving and direct assistance to the poor. He wrote: "Each time that one of the faithful personally performs one or more of these actions, he or she shall surely obtain the Jubilee Indulgence."
